Overview & Purpose

The personnel policies provide employees with a general understanding of the employment policies of the Umatilla County Special Library District (UCSLD) and to provide guidance.

These policies cannot anticipate every situation or answer every question about employment. It is not an employment contract and is not intended to create contractual obligations of any kind. Neither the employee nor UCSLD is bound to continue the employment relationship if either chooses, at its will, to end the relationship at any time.

In all areas where specific guidance is not provided by these policies, the UCSLD Board of Directors reserves the right to determine all such issues on a case-by-case basis, with recommendations made by the District Director as provided in this policy and affirmed or rejected by the Board.

The UCSLD reserves the right to change, revise, or eliminate any of the policies and/or benefits described in this handbook, except for its policy of employment-at-will. The only recognized deviations from the stated policies are those authorized and signed by the UCSLD Board or as otherwise required by law.

The policies in this statement shall apply to individuals that have an employment relationship with UCSLD. To the extent that volunteers are utilized by UCSLD, the provisions relating to protection of status, protection from adverse environments, and the requirements for positive behaviors shall apply. Wherever this policy is applicable to both employees and volunteers, it shall be noted in the language.

The District Director is charged with responsibility for the interpretation and application of the policies. The District Director shall be responsible for ensuring the effective implementation of these rules and regulations and may further establish, amend, or otherwise modify procedures pursuant to Board policies and shall advise the Board on any changes concerning these rules and regulations. The Board delegates to the District Director broad discretion in all aspects of personnel, subject to the advice and concurrence of the Board.

Volunteer Policy

Value and Purpose

Umatilla County Special Library District (UCSLD) values volunteerism as community engagement. The volunteers are a valuable resource of the UCSLD. The volunteers share their knowledge, expertise, enthusiasm, energy, and ideas throughout the District for the benefit of all.

The services that volunteers provide aid the District in making the best use of its fiscal resources and are meant to enhance, not replace, adequate staffing.

A volunteer in the UCSLD is an individual who receives no direct compensation for services. Volunteers and staff are expected to work together in a manner that is respectful, patient, and appreciative of volunteers, with staff offering guidance, assistance, and support when and where appropriate. Volunteers are held to similar standards of conduct and procedure as employees.

Personnel compensated as employees of UCSLD may not volunteer to do work they would otherwise be paid to accomplish.

The District Director or designee directs, develops, and administers the UCSLD volunteer program by recruiting, selecting, interviewing, training, and placing volunteers. The District Director or designee also organizes volunteer activities and provides for appropriate volunteer recognition and appreciation acknowledging the benefit volunteers provide to the District and the communities it serves.

Equal Employment Opportunity

UCSLD is committed to a policy of equality for all volunteer applicants. Volunteer decisions will comply with all applicable employment laws prohibiting discrimination as they apply to sex, race, color, sexual orientation, religion, national origin, ancestry, pregnancy, age, marital status, disability, and genetic information.

Volunteer Selection

Volunteers are selected based on their qualifications in relation to the needs of the UCSLD at any given time. UCSLD volunteers are coordinated by the District Director or designee, and must be at least 12 years of age. Volunteer talents, experience, availability and interests will be considered in job assignments.

Volunteer Positions and Time Commitment

A. Categories of Volunteers

1. Adult Volunteers—18 years of age or older. The adult volunteers may work in any of the areas of the UCSLD.
2. Youth—12 to 17 years of age. A parent/guardian of volunteers under the age of 18 must sign a consent form for their child to perform volunteer service hours at the UCSLD. Forms are available at the District office.

B. Volunteer Positions

Volunteers may work in all areas of the District including:

- Book processing
- Shelving and inventory
- Book mending
- Maintenance and housekeeping
- Events coordination
- Collecting historical documents
- Display designing and implementing
- Clerical support
- Finance
- Web design
- Fundraising
- Grant writing
- Communications and publicity
- Outreach
- Courier deliveries
- Friends of the Library

Volunteers will not be expected to do anything staff would not do.

C. Volunteer Time Commitment

For most volunteer positions there are no minimum service hours required.

Attendance and Recording Hours

Volunteers are expected to fulfill the commitment agreed upon with the library. Volunteers not able to cover their shift for any reason are expected to notify the District Director or designee as soon as possible by telephone or email.

Volunteers who are sick or unable to volunteer due to a planned vacation are asked to advise the District Director or designee, as early as possible to allow sufficient time to find a replacement volunteer.

Accurate records of time and attendance are a necessity for all volunteers. Volunteers are asked to report their total time on the appropriate time sheet for their position. The log of volunteer hours is used for various purposes such as reporting volunteer statistics to the Oregon State Library and applying for grants.

Volunteer Standards of Conduct and Termination

Volunteers are asked to treat all staff and fellow volunteers with respect. This maintains an effective and positive space for all. Volunteers must also adhere to the same standards of conduct as UCSLD employees.

Appointment of Employees

Minimum Age Requirements

All employees of the Umatilla County Special Library District (UCSLD) must be at least 18 years of age.

Employment of Relatives

Employees who are relatives of UCSLD employees will not be eligible for UCSLD employment where direct supervision is provided by a relative. A relative is defined as a parent, child, spouse, domestic partner, brother, sister, uncle, aunt, nephew, niece, in-law, and step relationships.

Employment Applications

UCSLD relies upon the accuracy of information contained in the employment application, as well as the accuracy of other data presented throughout the hiring process and employment. Any misrepresentations, falsifications, or material omissions in any of this information or data may result in the exclusion of the individual from further consideration for employment or, if the person has been hired, termination of employment.

Pre-Employment Screening

All applicants who are offered a position for employment are subject to background screening recommended by the liability insurer of the UCSLD.

Employment Reference Checks

To ensure that individuals who join UCSLD are well qualified and have a strong potential to be productive and successful, it is the policy of UCSLD to check the employment references of all applicants.

UCSLD will respond to all reference check inquiries from other employers. Responses to such inquiries will confirm only dates of employment, wage rates, and position(s) held. No employment data will be released without a written authorization and release signed by the individual who is the subject of the inquiry.

Driving Record

UCSLD employees who may be required to drive must possess a valid driver's license that allows driving privileges in Oregon and must comply with any operator's license restriction. All employees who may be required to drive on UCSLD business may at any time have their driving record checked by the UCSLD as permitted by applicable law. If the record indicates violations, the employee may be subject to appropriate warnings or disciplinary action. As a condition of continued employment each employee who operates a vehicle in order to fulfill their job description must maintain a personal driving record which is within risk criteria, if any, established by the district's insurer.

Job applicants' driving records may be checked prior to being hired as a condition of employment.

Employees who may be required to drive shall notify the District Director of any change in license status, and all traffic violations. Failure to report a traffic violation or change in license status to the District Director is viewed as a violation of UCSLD policy. The UCSLD monitors driving records as a component of risk management, in order to identify needs for driver improvement.

This policy is applicable to qualified individuals with disabilities only when driving is an essential function of their job.

Trial Period

All employees are subject to a 90-day trial period, which begins on their date of hire. The same is true for existing employees in a job change and begins on the employee's start date in the new job. The trial period serves to give employees in a new job the opportunity to demonstrate their ability, achieve satisfactory performance, and determine whether the new position meets their expectations. The Umatilla County Special Library District (UCSLD) uses this period to evaluate employee capabilities, work habits, and overall performance. During the trial period, the employee may be dismissed at any time without cause.

Any significant absence will automatically extend a trial period by the length of the absence.

At the end of the trial period, the employee's supervisor will conduct an evaluation using the standard performance appraisal forms to determine whether employment should be continued. Employees who do not satisfactorily complete the trial period will be dismissed.

If the employee's supervisor determines that the designated trial period does not allow sufficient time to thoroughly evaluate the employee's performance, the trial period may be extended for a specified period.

Upon satisfactory completion of the introductory period, employees enter the "regular" employment classification. Completion of the trial period does not modify an employee's at-will employment status.

Performance Appraisals

Supervisors and employees are strongly encouraged to discuss job performance and goals on an informal, day-to-day basis. Additional formal performance appraisals are conducted to provide both supervisors and employees the opportunity to discuss job tasks, identify and correct weaknesses, encourage and recognize strengths, and discuss positive, purposeful approaches for meeting goals.

Performance appraisals shall be conducted annually at the end of the fiscal year. The District Director conducts staff performance appraisals and the Board conducts performance appraisals for the District Director.

Supplemental Evaluation

A supplemental performance appraisal may be submitted on any occasion deemed appropriate by a supervisor to clarify performance deficiencies and goals or plans for improvement.

This policy applies to employees, contractors, consultants, partners, temporaries and other paid workers at the UCSLD. This policy applies to all equipment and software that is owned or leased by the UCSLD. The UCSLD reserves the right to audit networks and systems on a periodic basis to ensure compliance with this policy. The UCSLD implements this policy not to impose restrictions that are contrary to the UCSLD's culture of openness and trust. The UCSLD is committed to protecting its employees, partners and the district from illegal and damaging actions by individuals either knowingly or unknowingly.

General Use

Only authorized users may access the internet on UCSLD owned equipment and software. Employees should not mail, upload or broadcast any information for personal gain including but not limited to: chain letters, solicitations, employment opportunities, sale of products, and/or searches of non-business related sites or any obscene or offensive material. All UCSLD computing devices must be secured with a password protected screensaver. An individual must lock the screen/log off when the device is unattended.

Employees, contractors and partners must use extreme caution when opening email attachments received from unknown senders, which may contain malware. Employees, contractors and partners have a responsibility to promptly report any theft of unauthorized disclosures of UCSLD proprietary information.

Employees, contractors, consultants, partners, temporaries and other paid workers are prohibited to engage in the following activities while using UCSLD owned or leased resources. This list is not meant to be exhaustive, but an attempt to provide a framework for unacceptable usage:

- Any activity that is illegal under local, state, federal or international law.

Discipline

Discipline may be initiated for many proper reasons, including, but not limited to, violations of the work rules, insubordination, or poor job performance. See UCSLD Expectations of Employees for guidance on conduct, ethics, and prohibited behavior. The severity of the disciplinary action generally depends on the nature of the offense and an employee's work record and may range from verbal counseling to dismissal.

Disciplinary Action

Whenever an employee commits an offense warranting disciplinary action, the District Director or designee may begin disciplinary action at any of the steps listed below, depending on the seriousness of the offense committed. All steps at or above a written warning require approval by the District Director. All disciplinary steps, including verbal counseling or warning, should be documented.

1. Verbal counseling or warning. For minor offenses, the employee shall be given a verbal warning. If this does not correct the situation within a reasonable length of time, the supervisor shall then use the second step of this procedure.
2. Written counseling or warning. The employee may be given a written warning. A copy will be placed in the employee's personnel file, and the employee will be given a copy. The written warning should be signed and dated by the employee. Employees who disagree with the facts in the warning may submit a written response. The warning and the employee response will be placed in the employee's personnel file.
3. Performance improvement plan. The employee may be put on a performance improvement plan, which helps clarify performance deficiencies and goals or plans for improvement on the job. The plan includes a response from the employee. A copy signed by the employee and supervisor will be placed in the employee's personnel file, and the employee will be given a copy.
4. Suspension. If a second offense of any kind occurs after the first written warning, the employee may be suspended from work without pay for up to 30 days. The length of suspension will depend upon the seriousness of the offense. Before suspending an employee without pay, the supervisor will meet with and allow the employee the opportunity to respond.
5. Suspension pending dismissal. If a third offense of any kind occurs after the first written warning, the employee may be suspended without pay pending dismissal.

6. Dismissal. An employee may be dismissed if the employee violates district policy, commits serious misconduct, or fails to improve the level of performance. However, this statement does not limit the UCSLD's right to end the employment with or without cause at any time.

Supervisors are not required to go through the entire six steps involved in this disciplinary procedure. Discipline may begin at any step in the procedure depending upon the seriousness of the offense committed, as determined by the supervisor and District Director. In addition, the supervisor may deviate from this procedure, impose different types of discipline, or repeat any of the first four steps of this procedure when the supervisor feels it is necessary.

Grievance Process

It is the policy of UCSLD that all employees be afforded due process when any disciplinary action greater than a verbal or written warning has been imposed. This process allows employees to have their grievance heard or to appeal a decision for disciplinary action. The following steps constitute the grievance process for a disciplinary action:

1. Within five working days of the disciplinary action, employees must provide to the District Director a written statement of what they believe is incorrect or unfair about the decision reached, along with the specific remedy they seek.
2. The District Director shall respond in writing to the employee within 10 working days of receipt of the employee's statement of grievance. The District Director may determine the response through inquiry, investigation, hearing, or other action. If the District Director does not respond in time, the employee may escalate the grievance to step 3.
3. If the employee wishes to appeal the District Director's decision or if the District Director fails to respond to the grievance within 10 working days as outlined in step 4, the aggrieved employee may submit a written summary of the grievance along with all pertinent documentation to the UCSLD Board of Directors at its next regularly scheduled meeting.
4. The Board of Directors shall respond in writing within 45 days after the date of the presentation of the grievance. The Board may solicit additional information as it deems appropriate, and it may exercise a full range of discretionary actions, from upholding the disciplinary action to modifying the action in any manner as determined by the board. The decision of the Board shall be final and binding.

If the grievance procedures established in this section are not initiated by the employee within the specified time limits, the grievance shall be considered not to have existed.

No employee shall be disciplined or discriminated against in any way because of the employee's proper use of the grievance procedure.

Employee Termination

Termination of employment is an inevitable part of personnel activity within any organization, and many of the reasons for termination are routine. Umatilla County Special Library District (UCSLD), as a Special District Association of Oregon (SDAO) insured, will not as a general rule, terminate personnel without prior free SDAO legal advice. Below are examples of some of the most common circumstances under which employment is terminated:

- Resignation - voluntary employment termination initiated by an employee.
- Discharge - involuntary employment termination initiated by the organization.
- Retirement - voluntary employment termination initiated by the employee meeting age, length of service, and any other criteria for retirement from the organization.

Since employment with UCSLD is based on mutual consent, both the employee and UCSLD have the right to terminate employment at will, with or without cause, at any time. Employees will receive their final pay in accordance with applicable state law.

Employee benefits will be affected by employment termination in the following manner. All accrued, vested benefits that are due and payable at termination will be paid. Some benefits may be continued at the employee's expense if the employee so chooses. The employee will be notified in writing of the benefits that may be continued and of the terms, conditions, and limitations of such continuance.

Severance Pay

The UCSLD may provide severance pay to eligible employees whose employment is terminated for reasons that are not prejudicial to UCSLD, as determined by UCSLD in its sole discretion. Severance pay may be provided to the following eligible employee classifications:

- Regular full-time employees
- Regular part-time employees

Specifically excluded from benefits under this provision are employees who: were hired as temporary employees for a specified period of time, leave work due to a reduction in the work force, were offered but refused to accept another suitable position with the organization, were provided the opportunity to be retained for any length of time by a successor employer.

Scheduling

The normal work schedule for employees is Monday through Friday. Supervisors will advise employees of the times their schedules will normally begin and end. Staffing needs and operational demands may necessitate variations in starting and ending times, as well as variations in the total hours that may be scheduled each day and week.

Flexible scheduling, or flextime, is available in some cases to allow employees to vary their starting and ending times each day within established limits. Flextime may be possible if a mutually workable schedule can be negotiated with the supervisor involved. However, such issues as staffing needs, the employee's performance, and the nature of the job will be considered before approval of flextime. Employees should consult their supervisor to request participation in the flextime program.

Rest and Meal Periods

Each workday, full-time nonexempt employees are provided with 2 rest periods. Supervisors will advise employees of the regular rest period length and schedule. To the extent possible, rest periods will be provided in the middle of work periods. This time is counted and paid as time worked.

All full-time employees are provided with one meal period each workday. Supervisors will schedule meal periods to accommodate operating requirements. Employees will be relieved of all active responsibilities and restrictions during meal periods and will not be compensated for that time.

Telecommuting

Telecommuting is the practice of working at home or at a site near the home instead of physically traveling to a central workplace. It is a work alternative that the Umatilla County Special Library District (UCSLD) may offer to some employees when it would benefit both the organization and the employee.

Employees who believe telecommuting can enhance their ability to get the job done should submit a written request to their supervisor proposing how it will benefit UCSLD and themselves. The request should explain how they will be accountable and responsible, what equipment is necessary, and how communication barriers will be overcome.

The Board's decision to approve a telecommuting arrangement will be based on factors such as position and job duties, performance history, related work skills, and the impact on the organization.

The employee's compensation, benefits, work status, work responsibilities, and the amount of time the employee is expected to work per day or per pay period will not change due to participation in the telecommuting program (unless otherwise agreed upon in writing).

The employee's at-home work hours will conform to a schedule agreed upon by the employee and their supervisor. If such a schedule has not been agreed upon, the employee's work hours will be assumed to be the same as they were before the employee began telecommuting. Changes to this schedule must be reviewed and approved in advance by the employee's supervisor.

Telecommuting is an alternative method of meeting the needs of the organization and is not a universal employee benefit. As such, UCSLD has the right to refuse to make telecommuting available to an employee and to terminate a telecommuting arrangement at any time.

Emergency Closings

At times, emergencies such as severe weather, fires, power failures, earthquakes, unsafe work conditions or pandemics can disrupt operations. In extreme cases, these circumstances may require the closing of a work facility.

The District Director will determine when an emergency closure is warranted. When operations are officially closed due to emergency conditions, the time off from scheduled work will be paid.

In cases where an emergency closing is not authorized, employees who fail to report for work will not be paid for the time off. Employees in essential operations may be asked to work on a day when operations are officially closed. In these circumstances, employees who work will receive regular pay.

Vacation

Vacation time off with pay is available to eligible employees to provide opportunities for rest, relaxation, and personal pursuits. Employees in the following employment classification(s) are eligible to earn and use vacation time as described in this policy:

- Regular full-time employees
- Regular part-time employees

The amount of paid vacation time employees receives each year increases with the length of their employment as shown in the following schedule on a pro-rated basis:

- Upon hire, the employee is entitled to 15 vacation days each year, accrued monthly at the rate of 1.25 days (or 10 hours).
- After 3 years of eligible service (from date of hire) the employee is entitled to 18 vacation days each year, accrued monthly at the rate of 1.5 days (or 12 hours).
- After 5 years of eligible service the employee is entitled to 21 vacation days each year, accrued monthly at the rate of 1.75 days (or 14 hours).

Vacation leave begins accruing at hire and subsequent increases at 3 and 5 years occur as of the date of hire. They can request use of vacation time after it is earned.

Utilization of vacation time shall be approved by the District Director for all employees. Vacation time may be used for sick leave as defined in Sick Leave, when the sick leave accrual has been exhausted, or for family leave as defined in Other Leaves. All time granted shall be compensated at the normal pay rate for the employee. Vacation time for the District Director shall be reviewed and approved by the president of the Umatilla County Special Library District (UCSLD) Board of Directors. Requests will be reviewed based on a number of factors, including business needs and staffing requirements.

Vacation time off is paid at the employee's base pay rate at the time of vacation. It does not include overtime or any special terms of compensation.

As stated above, employees are encouraged to use available paid vacation time for rest, relaxation, and personal pursuits. In the event that available vacation is not used by the end of the benefit year, employees may carry unused time forward to the next benefit year. If the total amount of unused vacation time reaches a "cap" equal to the annual vacation amount, further vacation accrual will stop. When the employee uses paid vacation time and brings the available amount below the cap, vacation accrual will begin again.

Upon termination of employment, employees will be paid for unused vacation time that has been earned through the last day of work.

Sick Leave

The Umatilla County Special Library District (UCSLD) provides paid sick leave benefits to all eligible employees for periods of temporary absence due to illnesses or injuries. Eligible employee classification(s):

- Regular full-time employees
- Regular part-time employees

Eligible employees will accrue sick leave benefits at the rate of 12 days per year (1 day for every full month of service). Sick leave benefits are calculated on a basis of a “benefit year,” the 12-month period begins when the employee starts to earn sick leave benefits as of hire date. Sick leave will be pro-rated based on a 40-hour work week.

Paid sick leave can be used in minimum increments of one-half hour. Eligible employees may use sick leave benefits for an absence due to their own illness or injury or that of an immediate family member.

The UCSLD defines “immediate family” as the employee’s spouse, domestic partner, parent, child, sibling; the employee’s spouse’s parent, child, or sibling; the employee’s child’s spouse; grandparents or grandchildren.

Employees who are unable to report to work due to illness or injury should notify their direct supervisor before the scheduled start of their workday if possible. The direct supervisor must also be contacted on each additional day of absence.

When an employee leaves to care for a dependent, sick leave benefits can be used. If more time is needed, family leave laws may come into effect if laws apply and the employee is eligible for such leave. The employee must comply with the notice requirements under family leave laws, which may provide for later notification of inability to work than is otherwise required by this policy, if the need for the leave is unanticipated.

Sick leave benefits will be calculated based on the employee’s base pay rate at the time of absence.

Unused sick leave benefits will be allowed to accumulate until the employee has accrued a total of 90 calendar days work of sick leave benefits. If the employee’s benefits reach this maximum, further accrual of sick leave benefits will be suspended until the employee has reduced the balance below the limit.

Sick leave benefits are intended solely to provide income protection in the event of illness or injury and may not be used for any other absence. Unused sick leave benefits will not be paid to employees while they are employed or upon termination of employment.

Concurrent Leaves

Sometimes more than one type of leave may apply to a situation. Where allowed by federal or state law, leaves will run concurrently. This means that sick leave, workers' compensation leave, personal leave, leave as a reasonable accommodation for a qualified individual with a disability, federal family medical leave, and unpaid leaves of absence may all run concurrently and be counted against the employee's family medical leave entitlement. The UCSLD may designate any type of leave as Family Medical Leave if the leave is used for a family medical leave purpose.

Medical Certification

An employee on sick leave that is running concurrently with another type of leave, for example family medical leave or personal leave, may have to provide the medical certification required for any and all applicable types of leave. This means an employee on sick leave may be required to have their medical provider complete the certification of physician or practitioner form required for federal or state family medical leave, obtain second or third medical opinions, as provided by family medical leave laws, and provide fitness for duty medical certifications before returning to work as provided by the family medical leave policy.

Other Leaves

Leaves of Absence

The Umatilla County Special Library District (UCSLD) offers leaves of absence for qualifying reasons as outlined in this policy. When an employee is granted a leave of absence, benefits may be suspended for that period of time unless otherwise indicated.

Employees in the following employment classifications are eligible to request family leave as described in this policy:

- Regular full-time employees
- Regular part-time employees

Jury Duty

The UCSLD encourages employees to fulfill their civic responsibilities by serving jury duty when required. Employees in an eligible classification may request paid jury duty leave.

Jury duty pay will be calculated on the employee's base pay rate times the number of hours the employee would otherwise have worked on the day of absence.

Employees must show the jury duty summons to their supervisor as soon as possible so that the supervisor may make arrangements to accommodate their absence. Of course, employees are expected to report for work whenever the court schedule permits.

Either UCSLD or the employee may request an excuse from jury duty if, in the UCSLD's judgment, the employee's absence would create serious operational difficulties.

The UCSLD will continue to provide health insurance benefits for the full term of the jury duty absence.

Vacation, sick leave, and holiday benefits will continue to accrue during jury duty leave.

Any compensation for jury duty will be signed over the UCSLD. Employees may retain any amount the court compensates for travel expenses.

Witness Duty

The UCSLD provides leave for employees to appear in court for witness duty when subpoenaed to do so.

If employees have been subpoenaed or otherwise requested to testify as witnesses by UCSLD, they will receive paid time off for the entire period of witness duty.

The UCSLD will continue to provide health insurance benefits for the full term of the witness duty absence.

Vacation, sick leave, and holiday benefits will continue to accrue during witness duty leave.

Any compensation for witness duty will be signed over the UCSLD. Employees may retain any amount the court compensates for travel expenses.

The subpoena should be shown to the employee's supervisor immediately after it is received so that operating requirements can be adjusted, where necessary, to accommodate the employee's absence. The employee is expected to report for work whenever the court schedule permits.

Bereavement Leave

Employees who wish to take time off due to the death of an immediate family member should notify their supervisor immediately. The UCSLD defines "immediate family" as the employee's spouse, domestic partner, parent, child, sibling; the employee's spouse's parent, child, or sibling; the employee's child's spouse; grandparents or grandchildren. Special consideration will also be given to any other person whose association with the employee was like any of the above relationships.

Up to two weeks of paid sick leave may be used by eligible employees within 60 days of the date on which the employee receives notice of the death of a family member. Bereavement pay is calculated based on the employee's base pay rate at the time of absence. Employees may, with their supervisors' approval, use any available paid leave for additional time off as necessary.

Personal Leave

UCSLD may provide leaves of absence without pay to eligible employees who wish to take time off from work duties to fulfill personal obligations.

Eligible employees may request personal leave only after having completed 90 calendar day trial period. As soon as eligible employees become aware of the need for a personal leave of absence, they should request a leave from their supervisor.

If an initial period of absence proves insufficient, consideration will be given to a written request for a single extension. With the supervisor's approval, an employee may take any available vacation leave as part of the approved period of leave.

Requests for personal leave will be evaluated based on a number of factors, including anticipated workload requirements and staffing considerations during the proposed period of absence.

Subject to the terms, conditions, and limitations of the applicable plans, health insurance benefits may be provided by UCSLD until the end of the first full month of approved personal leave. At that time, employees will become responsible for the full costs of these benefits if they wish coverage to continue. When the employee returns from personal leave, benefits will again be provided by UCSLD according to the applicable plans.

If an employee fails to report to work promptly at the expiration of the approved leave period, UCSLD will assume the employee has resigned.

Military Leave

Eligible employees shall be granted time off, without compensation or benefits, for service in the National Guard. Should any employee be called to active service, the UCSLD will assure that the individual will be rehired upon completion of such service in the same or equivalent position.

Discrimination, harassment and retaliation are not acceptable.

Any employee who has questions or concerns about these policies should talk with our primary contact, the District Director. As an alternative you may reach the President of the Board of Directors.

EQUAL EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY

Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 recognizes two types of sexual harassment: a) quid pro quo and b) hostile work environment. Sexual harassment may include a range of subtle and not-so-subtle behaviors and may involve individuals of the same or different gender. Depending on the circumstances, these behaviors may include unwanted sexual advances or requests for sexual favors; sexual jokes and innuendo; verbal abuse of a sexual nature; commentary about an individual's body, sexual prowess or sexual deficiencies; leering, whistling or touching; insulting or obscene comments or gestures; display in the workplace of sexually suggestive objects or pictures; and other physical, verbal or visual conduct of a sexual nature.

Oregon Law provides further protection from sexual assault defined as unwanted conduct of a sexual nature that is inflicted upon a person or compelled through the use of physical force, manipulation, threat, or intimidation.

HARASSMENT

Harassment on the basis of any other protected characteristic is also strictly prohibited. Under this policy, harassment is verbal, written or physical conduct that denigrates or shows hostility or aversion toward an individual because of his or her race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, national origin, age, disability, marital status, citizenship, genetic information, or any other characteristic protected by law, or that of his or her relatives, friends or associates, and that: a) has the purpose or effect of creating an intimidating, hostile or offensive work environment, b) has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with an individual's work performance, or c) otherwise adversely affects an individual's employment opportunities.

Harassing conduct includes labels, insults or negative stereotyping; threatening, intimidating or hostile acts; demeaning jokes; and written or graphic material that belittles or shows hostility or dislike toward an individual or group that is placed on walls or elsewhere on the employer's premises or circulated in the workplace, on company time or using company equipment by e-mail, phone (including voice messages), text messages, social networking sites or other means.

REPORTING AN INCIDENT OF HARASSMENT, DISCRIMINATION OR RETALIATION

The UCSLD encourages reporting of all perceived incidents of discrimination, harassment or retaliation, regardless of the offender's identity or position. Individuals who believe that they have been the victim of such conduct should discuss their concerns with the District Director or with the President of the Board of Directors. See the complaint procedure described below.

In addition, we encourage individuals who believe they are being subjected to such conduct to promptly advise the offender that their behavior is unwelcome and to request that it stop. Often this action alone will resolve the problem. We recognize, however, that an individual may prefer to pursue the matter through complaint procedures.

Following receipt of a complaint or concern, management will follow-up every three months for one year to ensure no further concerns or retaliation are experienced. Employees should not wait for the management follow-up to share related experiences. If an employee would like the follow-up to discontinue the follow-up process a request must be submitted in writing to the District Director.

INTERNAL COMPLAINT PROCEDURE

Individuals who believe they have been the victims of conduct prohibited by this policy or believe they have witnessed such conduct should discuss their concerns with the District Director. If you are unable to reach the primary contact, please contact the President of the Board of Directors. We encourage employees to document the event(s), associated date(s), and potential witnesses.

The UCSLD encourages the prompt reporting of complaints or concerns so that quick and helpful action can be taken before relationships become irreparably broken. Early reporting and intervention have proven to be the most effective method of resolving actual or perceived incidents of harassment. However, complaints and concerns may be brought forward within four years of the alleged violation. We encourage employees to document the events, associated dates, and potential witnesses.

Any reported allegations of harassment, discrimination or retaliation will be investigated quickly. The investigation may include individual interviews with the parties involved and, where necessary, with individuals who may have observed the event(s) or may have other relevant knowledge.

The UCSLD will maintain confidentiality throughout the investigatory process to the extent possible with acceptable investigation and appropriate corrective action.

Misconduct constituting harassment, discrimination or retaliation will be dealt with appropriately. Responsive action may include, for example, training, referral to counseling or corrective action such as [Identify potential options: warning, reprimand, withholding of a promotion or pay increase, reassignment, temporary suspension without pay, or termination] as the UCSLD believes appropriate under the circumstances.

False and malicious complaints of harassment, discrimination or retaliation (as opposed to complaints that, even if erroneous, are made in good faith) may be the subject of appropriate disciplinary action.

EXTERNAL COMPLAINT PROCEDURES

We encourage employees to bring their concerns and complaints to the organization, and understand that, at times, this may not be the choice of the employee. Below is a list of the external complaint options. Please reach out to the preferred choice to determine the appropriate timelines for their processes.

- Oregon Bureau of Labor and Industries at the following web address: https://www.oregon.gov/boli/CRD/Pages/C_Crcompl.aspx
- Civil or Criminal Action. In these circumstances, a Notice of Claim must be provided to us in accordance with ORS 30.275.

EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENTS

No employee will be required or invited to sign an agreement requiring the non-disclosure of information related to discrimination or sexual assault as a condition of employment, continued employment, promotion, compensation or the receipt of benefits. An employee may request this type of agreement and, upon request, will be provided at least seven (7) days to change their mind.

Bullying

The Umatilla County Special Library District (UCSLD) is committed to a work environment free from bullying on any basis. For the purposes of this policy, bullying is defined as repeated inappropriate behavior, either direct or indirect, whether verbal, physical or otherwise (including electronically transmitted acts – i.e. cyberbullying, through the use of internet, cell phone, computer, or wireless handheld device, currently in use or later developed and used by employees), conducted by one or more persons against another or others, at the place of work and/or in the course of employment. Bullying is behavior that is intentional, repetitive, and hurtful resulting in an imbalance of power between the bully and the target. Such behavior violates the UCSLD Prevention of Workplace Discrimination, Harassment and Retaliation policy.

The UCSLD prohibits acts of bullying as defined above. It must be noted that where an allegation of bullying is made the intention of the alleged bully is irrelevant and will not be given consideration when meting out discipline. As in sexual harassment, it is the effect of the behavior upon the individual which is important. The UCSLD considers the following types of behavior examples of bullying:

- Verbal Bullying: slandering, ridiculing or making evil, harmful, and often untrue statement toward a person or their family; persistent name calling which is hurtful, insulting, or humiliating; using a person as butt of jokes; abusive and offensive remarks.
- Physical Bullying: pushing, shoving; kicking; poking; tripping; assault, or threat of physical assault; damage to a person's work area or property.
- Gesture Bullying: non-verbal threatening gestures.

Any employee who believes they have experienced bullying should report the information immediately to their supervisor or the District Director. All employees are responsible for notifying their supervisor or the District Director of any harassment behaviors at the workplace or affecting the workplace which they have witnessed, received, or have been told that another person has witnessed or received. All claims shall be investigated either by the supervisor or by the District Director, and the individual who initiated the complaint will be informed as to when the investigation is complete and if corrective actions have been taken.

Should the complaint involve the District Director, the complaint shall be reported to the president of the UCSLD Board of Directors. The president shall have an affirmative duty to investigate and share the findings with the individual initiating the complaint.

Whistleblower Policy

The Umatilla County Special Library District (UCSLD) is committed to lawful and ethical behavior in all of its activities and requires its employees, volunteers, and contractors to conduct themselves in a manner that complies with all applicable laws and regulations. This policy is based on ORS 659A.199 to 659A.224, Whistleblower Law.

The UCSLD encourages any employee with knowledge of or concern of an illegal or dishonest fraudulent UCSLD activity to report it to the District Director or designee. The employee may also provide the information to a District Board member, a state or federal regulatory agency, a law enforcement agency or an attorney licensed to practice law in Oregon if a confidential communication is made in connection with the alleged violation. Attorneys employed by the UCSLD may report violations of law to the Attorney General, subject to rules of professional conduct. All such issues will be investigated in a timely manner to determine fault and institute any appropriate corrective measures.

Examples of illegal or dishonest activities are violations of federal, state, or local laws; billing for services not performed or for goods not delivered; and other fraudulent financial reporting. For any employee wishing more information, further details can be obtained from the District Director.

The employee must exercise sound judgment to avoid baseless allegations. An employee who intentionally files a false report of wrongdoing may be subject to corrective action up to and including termination.

Whistleblower protections are provided to maintain confidentiality and to prevent retaliation. While identity may have to be disclosed to conduct a thorough investigation, to comply with the law, and to provide accused individuals their due course, the privacy of the individual making the report will be protected as much as possible. The UCSLD will not retaliate against a whistleblower. This includes, but is not limited to, protection from retaliation in the form of an adverse employment action such as termination, compensation decreases, or poor work assignments and threats of physical harm. Any whistleblower who believes they are being retaliated against must contact the District Director or designee immediately. The right of a whistleblower for protection against retaliation does not include immunity for any personal wrongdoing that is alleged and investigated.

All reports of illegal and dishonest activities will be promptly submitted to the District Director or designee who is responsible for investigating and coordinating corrective action.
